Sentencing of Former Lee County Caregiver

Attorney General Jack Conway and his Medicaid Fraud and Abuse Control Unit today announced the plea of guilty and sentencing of a former caregiver on a charge of defrauding the Kentucky Medicaid program. This morning, 49-year-old Yvette Horvath of Winchester was sentenced in Lee Circuit Court to five years prison, which will be diverted for a period of five years. Horvath was also ordered to pay $5,826.16 in restitution to the Kentucky Department of Medicaid Services. During this five-year period, Horvath will be supervised by the Division of Probation and Parole. She must also complete 40 hours of community service and refrain from working as a home-health provider for the period of her diversion.

Horvath worked as a caregiver for Rock Arch Refuge, a company based in Lee County that provides Medicaid-funded services to disabled patients. On March 4, 2015, Horvath pleaded guilty to one count of presenting fraudulent claims to defraud the Kentucky Medical Assistance Program over $300, a Class D felony with a penalty range of one to five years. In pleading guilty, Horvath admitted that from September 2, 2013, through January 18, 2014, she submitted false timesheets for services she did not perform, resulting in a loss to the Medicaid program of $5,826.16.

Tobacco Compliance Checks

On Friday, March 27, 2015 the Owsley County Drug Awareness conducted Tobacco Compliance Checks with collaboration of the Booneville City Police. Compliance Checks are performed to ensure that local businesses are refraining from selling tobacco products to underage children. A teen enters local businesses who sell tobacco products and attempts to purchase. If the purchase is successful the clerk receives a letter stating what could happen to them if they sell to an underage teen again. If the purchase is unsuccessful, the clerk receives a letter congratulating them on passing the Compliance Check and receives a gift card from the Owsley County Drug Awareness. Seven businesses were included in the tobacco compliance check: BP, Valero, Funtown Quick Mart, Family Dollar, Dollar General, Joe's Meat Market, and Shopwise. Unfortunately, three out of the seven businesses failed the compliance check. These businesses include Valero, Funtown Quick Mart, and Joe's Meat Market.

SIN, RIGHTEOUSNESS AND JUDGMENT

No less than four times Jesus refers to the Holy Spirit as the "Comforter." All Christians should find comfort from the Holy Ghost through prayer and Bible reading. It is interesting every time Christ calls the Holy Ghost the Comforter occurs at the last supper (John 14:16, 26; 15:26; 16:7).

In each case, Christ explains how the Holy Spirit will give us comfort.

John 14:16 tells us we are comforted because the Spirit will abide with us forever. Ten verses later the Holy Ghost comforts us by teaching us all things and bringing things we've learned to our remembrance.

In the next chapter, John 15:26, we are comforted because the Spirit teaches us of Christ. Then we come to John chapter sixteen; it is here we see Christians being comforted through the means by which the Holy Spirit deals with the world.

"And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: Of sin, because they believe not on me; Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged" (John 16:8-11).

Interesting thought; it

The Commonwealth of Kentucky vs. Becknell, Kenneth Matthew- Motion should bring comfort to the Christian when the Holy Ghost reproves the world of sin, righteousness and judgment. Why should it bring comfort to Christians to see anyone scolded?

When God rebukes someone because of sin, righteousness or judgment, He is leading them to Him. He is attempting to bring them to salvation.

Christ describes why the Holy Spirit is doing this rebuking.

John 16:9. "Of sin, because they believe not on me;" Jesus Christ is the Saviour and He saves us from our sins (Matthew 1:21). People need to be reproved from sin because they don't believe on Jesus, thus leading them to have a misconception about how God looks at sin. The general opinion is God will weigh the good against the bad and if the scales tip toward the good, all is well. Some believe God holds particular sins, like murder or rape, as crossing the line, condemning one to hell, and since most people have never committed such things, they believe all is well. Others will hold some religious ritual, such as baptism, as God's accepted ticket to eternal life. There are other ideas of what makes God happy, but these three are the main opinions of the western world.

The truth is, God hates sin, and this separates the world from God (Psalm 66:18; Isaiah 59:2). Jesus came to save the world from sin by dying on the cross (Matthew 1:21; John 1:29; 1 Corinthians 5:7; 1 Peter 1:18-19). Christ has sent the Holy Spirit to reprove the world of sin because they don't believe in Him. Until the world changes its views of sin, it will never understand the need of a Saviour.

John 16:10. "Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;" With Christ gone, God is not walking around in bodily form on this earth any-the flames of hell are prepared for the devil and his angels (Matthew 25:41), more people will end up in hell than in heaven (Matthew 7:13-14). Again, this reproof comes to convince people of their need for a Saviour.

A drowning man will not reach for a life preserver unless he believes he needs it. It should be a comfort to Christians when someone realizes they need Jesus, the spiritual life preserver, and reaches for the Saviour.

The goal of the reproof is to have as many people believe on Jesus as possible. One may wonder how the Holy Ghost does this. Mainly, He does this through the Christian (Romans 10:13-17).

Outdoor Truths

by Gary Miller

There's something about "bringing home the bacon" or as in my case, the turkey. I came in from our opening day hunt with bird in hand. I stalked it, shot it, hauled it home, cleaned it, and handed it to my wife knowing that I had provided Sunday dinner for the next day. I honestly felt like I had touched the "hunter" part of man's makeup. I felt like I had fulfilled one of my purposes as the male gender of the homo-sapien species. Now as long as Food City was close I knew we wouldn't starve but it just seemed fitting for me to take the role as "hunter" in the hunter/gatherer relationship between the male and female. You know, men are hunters and women are gatherers. Let me explain.

My wife gives me a list of 2 or 3 things to pick up at the grocery store. On that list is toilet paper. It sounds easy enough, but let me show you the difference in the sexes. I go to aisle 12, find the extra fluffy Charmin bathroom tissue, load it into my cart and go home. Here's how I (man/hunter) did it. I was given the prey to locate (bathroom tissue). I hunted it down (aisle 12). I picked the trophy (extra fluffy). I killed it (bare hands). I loaded it's carcass into my truck (I put the tissue into the cart). Now this seemed like such a simple task but how different it is from the woman/gatherer side of things. My wife has the same list. She knows that the toilet paper is in aisle 12, so she easies over to aisle 12, going through aisles 9, 10, and 11 first. After arriving she sees all of the brands and styles. Immediately she begins to calculate. She compares the number of sheets in each roll, the amount of plies per sheet, and the number of rolls in each package. She measures, weighs, and figures. Then, before she makes her decision, she wonders if the other store may have it even cheaper. Then after GATHERING all of this needless (did I say that) information, she decides on the Cottonelle. And that's the difference in the hunter and gatherer.

I'm not sure why God made men and women so different. He must have a real sense of humor. But no matter how much we are different we all have an important purpose in life; not just as a man or woman but as individuals. And there's no better feeling than doing what we were made to do.

Mr. Speaker
"Chips & Splinters from Wagon Fork Rd" by Tim Biggs

Some time has passed since I wrote a letter to speaker Boehner. I apologized for the legal pad paper I wrote on. The letter went as so:

Mr. Speaker, pardon my stationery, I don't think the paper matters as much as what I might write on it. This envelope contains some of the articles I wrote for the Manchester Enterprise expressing the way most Eastern Kentuckians feel as I think you do also. This print of an outhouse I drew to express how most Americans feel about Obama Care Law. After you pass it you can read it in the outhouse library, note the Sears catalog replaced by a 6ft stack of the law papers. The picture has a note that says "finally an Obama Care that works in the end". I'm a patriot and a Veteran of the Korean War- 9/1/50 to 9/1/53 combat in Korea September 1951 to September 1952. At 81 I'm a product of the Great Depression. A lot of memories both good and bad to reflect on. Some of the articles I write mirror a vast amount of my 81 years of experience and feelings. Some of them I selected are what you are concerned about daily. I hope you have time to read them. Get your numbered print framed and place it next to the "Potus" picture in your office, have a little fun with it. Let me know if you received this package. I appreciate what you are doing as Speaker. Our family moved from KY to Hamilton, OH in 1943. I moved to Lexington, KY in 1970. Then back to Manchester, KY in 2007. Mr. Speaker, help save our constitution without another Revolution. 606-

A Simple Man

by Margaret Faye Hensley

Column # 125 WHEN LIZA JANE THOUGHT ABOUT the effort and talent that it took for a blind woman to cook, she was just in awe of Delsie. She was looking forward to the meal at Delsie's house later in the day. She had planned to leave next Sunday after her last dinner with Delsie. Liza had eased into the daily routines of life with her father. It was a full time job to prepare three meals each day, keep the house clean, and to wash and iron their clothes. Liza Jane's mother Lorene had been a stay at home mother and when Liza and Emma had grown up and had a home and children of their own they clearly understood the importance of a mother's responsibilities. Liza took pride in maintaining a clean home and providing good meals for those she loved. She had learned that each person can and should contribute to the efficient running of a household. She had given her children chores and responsibilities at a young age. She couldn't remember a time how important it was to take care of her belongings and to take personal pride in herself. She was on a jet airplane one time and as the flight attendant explained how to use the dropdown oxygen mask, she was aware of how that simple explanation was critical in all walks of life. The flight attendant said to give yourself oxygen first, or you could not take care of another person! That is such a simple instruction, yet many people miss the deep meaning of it. Liza had shared that realization with many people over the years since. She thought about the simplicity of human existence, and realized that there is not a more important task than each person being responsible for themselves while going through life's challenges. Delsie was a true testament of what a person could accomplish. to hear Jake sing and the other musicians that play with him are talented. I think I am ready to sing next Saturday. I wish I could practice on someone before I go all out next Saturday! I guess Daddy will have to be my practice audience. I would venture to say that he has been listening to me sing already! I wonder if I will ever get another opportunity to sing after next Saturday night.

Independent Auditor's Report

Report on the Financial Statement
We have audited the accompanying statement of revenues, expenditures, and excess fees - regulatory basis of the County Sheriff of Owsley County, Kentucky, for the year ended December 31, 2013, and the related notes to the financial statement.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in accordance with accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the laws of Kentucky to demonstrate compliance with the Commonwealth of Kentucky's regulatory basis of accounting as described in Note 1. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statement based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, and the Audit Guide for County Fee Officials issued by the Auditor of Public Accounts, Commonwealth of Kentucky. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Basis for Adverse Opinion on U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

As described in Note 1 of the financial statement, the financial statement is prepared by the County Sheriff on the basis of the accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the laws of Kentucky to demonstrate compliance with the Commonwealth of Kentucky's regulatory basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The effects on the financial statement of the variances between the regulatory basis of accounting described in Note 1 and accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, although not reasonably determinable, are presumed to be material.

Adverse Opinion on U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

In our opinion, because of the significance of the matter discussed in the Basis for Adverse Opinion on U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles paragraph, the financial statement referred to above does not present fairly, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, the financial position of each fund of the County Sheriff, as of December 31, 2013, or changes in financial position or cash flows therefor for the year then ended.

Opinion on Regulatory Basis of Accounting

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the revenues, expenditures, and excess fees of the County Sheriff for the year ended December 31, 2013, in accordance with the basis of accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the Commonwealth of Kentucky as described in Note 1.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated December 19, 2014 on our consideration of the Owsley County Sheriff's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grant agreements, and other matters. The purpose of that report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the Owsley County Sheriff's internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the entity's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

Based on the results of our audit, we have presented the accompanying comment and recommendation, included herein, which discusses the following report comment:

2013-01 The Sheriff's Office Lacks Adequate Segregation Of Duties

Respectfully submitted,

Adam H. Edelen
Auditor of Public Accounts

December 19, 2014

State law requires the Auditor of Public Accounts to annually audit fiscal courts, county clerks, and sheriffs; and print the results in a newspaper having general circulation in the county.
